Accessibility

Please speak to one of the ushers for large print bulletins, assistive hearing devices, or other accessibility needs. A supervised nursery is available for children up to four years old.

Why are We Here Today?

Jesus said, "Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light" (Matt. 11:28–30). In worship, God invites us to rest. He invites us to put away the anxieties and burdens of everyday life and come into his presence to be restored and renewed. We don't come to worship to offer God something. God doesn't need anything from us. We come to worship to joyfully receive God's gifts to us and respond to him with praise and thanksgiving.

Holy Communion at Trinity

The Lord's Supper is joyfully received here today. Our Lord delivers His true body and blood into our mouths in, with, and under the bread and wine. For those with faith, the sacrament forgives sins, strengthens faith, and unites us to the Lord and with one another. All members in good standing of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod have publicly confessed this sacred gift and its benefits and are encouraged to commune. Other guests wishing to join our confession and receive this sacrament are asked to meet with a pastor in the weeks before communing. Those who receive the sacrament should examine themselves according to Christ's bidding (1 Corinthians 11:28) and come to the table rejoicing, knowing that the Lord meets them with joy.

Those coming to the altar for a blessing rather than the Holy Supper are asked to cross their arms over their chest. We offer gluten-free wafers, and non-alcoholic wine is available in the center of the individual trays.

Introit (sung responsively)

Psalm 74:18–19, 21, 20a, 22a, antiphon: v. 2a

Remember your congregation, which you have pur- / chased of old,
which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your / heritage!

Remember this, O Lord, how the en- / emy scoffs, and a foolish people re- / viles your name.

Do not deliver the soul of your dove to the / wild beasts;
do not forget the life of your poor for- / ever.

Let not the downtrodden turn / back in shame;
let the poor and needy / praise your name.

Have regard for the / covenant;
arise, O God, de- / fend your cause.

Glory be to the Father and / to the Son and to the Holy / Spirit;

as it was in the be- / ginning,
is now, and will be forever. / Amen.

Remember your congregation, which you have pur- / chased of old,
which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your / heritage!

Collect of the Day

O Lord, almighty and everlasting God, You have commanded us to pray and have promised to hear us. Mercifully grant that Your Holy Spirit may direct and govern our hearts in all things that we may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of Your name; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Old Testament Reading

Genesis 32:22–30

The same night Jacob arose and took his two wives, his two female servants, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and everything else that he had. And Jacob was left alone. And a man wrestled with him until the breaking of the day. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he touched his hip socket, and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day has broken." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me." And he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then he said, "Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with men, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So

Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, saying, “For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life has been delivered.”

Epistle

2 Timothy 3:14–4:5

As for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work.

I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. As for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

Holy Gospel

Luke 18:1–8

Jesus told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. He said, “In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man. And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’ For a while he refused, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God nor respect man, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down by her continual coming.’” And the Lord said, “Hear what the unrighteous judge says. And will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them? I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

In Christ Alone

1. In Christ a-lone my hope is found, He is my light, my strength
2. In Christ a-lone, who took on flesh, full-ness of God in help-less
3. There in the ground His bod-y lay, Light of the world by dark-ness
4. No guilt in life, no fear in death, this is the pow'r of Christ in

LIFE THOUGHT IN THE CHURCH YEAR

Pentecost XIX

We get to declare and demonstrate the Word of the Lord even in adversity (2 Timothy 4:2-3). Proclaim the truth of God no matter what political controversies it intersects. Perform the love of Jesus no matter what personal choices it interferes with. Speak and show how He creates, redeems, and calls every human life, especially the least of these. Face discrimination with courage and compassion. Meet ridicule with joy and hope. God guarantees justice (Luke 18:7-8).

LIFE QUOTE

October 20

“No matter how hopeless and weak you think you are, you’ve been provided with all the grace you need to make it to the end. Future grace always carries with it the promise of present grace. God will provide everything you need until you see Him face to face (2 Peter 1:3).”

author and conference speaker

October is PASTOR APPRECIATION Month!

During the month of October, we encourage you to remember our pastors with a card, words of encouragement, or a small treat.

Need ideas? Check out page 7 of the October newsletter!

HAPPY DRIFTERS: Sunday, October 20 at 2:00 Ralph Kalberloh will be speaking. Mr. Kalberloh will tell of his experiences in World War II. He bailed out of his B17 while on a mission to Berlin. For five days, he wandered in a field with only a candy bar in his pocket. He will tell of his time being held as a prisoner of war. There is a signup sheet in the hall so we can have a record of how many will attend. Our older Trinity students and parents have been invited as our special guests.

JR AND SR YOUTH: Join us at Fischer Farms Pumpkin Patch and Corn Maze on Sunday, October 20. Please meet there from 4pm to 6pm. Cost is $6 per person which includes the corn maze, hay ride, and pumpkin patch. Dinner will be served at 5pm. Snacks, pumpkin, mum, etc is an additional cost. This will be our event for the day so we will not meet at regular youth group times. Please let Angie know if you will be attending, so we don't start the maze without you!

FUNDRAISER FOR THE SAMARITAN CENTER! The Jefferson City Board of Realtors is hosting a Chili Supper on October 23, from 4-7:30PM at the Eagles, 1411 Missouri Blvd. The proceeds will go to the Samaritan Center Utility Assistance Program. You can get tickets from your local realtor or at the door for $8.

JR YOUTH LOCK-IN is Friday, October 25 at 9pm and ends Saturday morning, October 26, at 7am. Our theme for the night is "Chosen" focusing on Ephesians 1:4-5. Throughout the night, we will have devotions, games, and fellowship. Hope to see all the Jr Youth there!!

FANTASTIC TRUTHS AND WHERE TO FIND THEM: The Senior Youth District Retreat will take place Nov. 22 to 24 at Cross Pointe Retreat Center. We will dig into the Bible to learn about the Fantastic Truths God gives us. The cost is $165 per youth. Please let Angie Brenner know by October 15th if you would like to attend.

PECANS and ENGLISH WALNUTS from the Trinity LWML Missionary Society are NOW available.

Pecans – 1-lb bag of Medium-Large Pieces = $10.00
English Walnuts – 1-lb bag = $10.00

Contact the Church Office, any Missionary Society member or Denise Ziegelbein (690-0881) to purchase.

The Society uses the profits from the sale of the pecans to help fund various projects at Trinity, in the Jefferson City area, and LWML projects throughout the State, Nation, and World. Thank you for your assistance.

FROM THE SAMARITAN CENTER: In a letter written Sept. 19, Marylyn DeFeo thanks us for the food we continue to take there for distribution to others in the community. Is this really necessary? Well, you be the judge: She writes on that date, Sept. 19, 54 families have already come in for their monthly supply of food. She also mentions that after the tornado the need for help has risen, and it continues. So will you continue to give us your small dollar gifts in the plastic box in the office? Or your large dollar gifts in checks to the church office? It all helps those 54 families and others like them. Thank you!

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY has begun a new study called "The Many Wonders of Heaven." We meet at 5:30 in the Board Room.

HUGE THANKS! Thank you Ed and Suebet Beck for hosting a fundraiser last Sunday to help offset costs of Calvary's trip to the Walk for Life in Washington, DC. They used a Thrivent Action Team to get the supplies to make DELICIOUS spaghetti with all of the fixings. With help of some of the students who are attending we raised close to $800! The Becks are truly a blessing for hosting this event and all of the families attending the Walk for Life extend their gratitude.

HEISINGER AND ST. JOSEPH'S BLUFFS AUXILIARY CHRISTMAS COOKIE AND CRAFT SALE: Mark your calendars for November 16, 4:30 to 7:00 pm for the Heisinger Auxiliary Dinner at the American Legion at 1423 Tanner Bridge Road. Tickets are $12.00 and can be purchased from Heisinger auxiliary members. There will also be a bake sale at the dinner. Any baker that would like to donate baked items for the bake sale can contact Pat Mantle at 338-1050 or Linda Smith at 893-4439.

ANNUAL CHILI SUPPER AT ST. JOHN'S - STRINGTOWN will be on Sunday, October 20 from 3:30 until 7pm. They will be serving chili, chicken noodle soup, sandwiches, pie, cake, and ice cream. There will also be a country store with homemade goodies. Hayride will begin at 6:30.

IT'S EVANGELISM MONTH!

Each week we've heard about current and future Evangelism opportunities occurring in the church and school.

Next week, Sunday, October 27, will be a special opportunity for your friends and family to worship with you! Be sure to introduce them to the greeters on the way into the sanctuary so we can give them a special guest bag. This is an opportunity to introduce your friends and family to the Savior... and to stay for lunch! All of this, simply because you take time to invite.

We are having a Fellowship Meal after the 10:30 service on October 27th in the Fellowship Hall. The Evangelism board will provide Schulte's fried chicken, drinks, and table service. The rest is up to you – bring your favorite salad or dessert to go along with the meal. Our new members will be especially invited so that we all learn to know them. Incidentally, we'll set up for 100 people but would love to serve an overflow crowd!

Chapel – Chaplain Mueller from Heisinger will lead our chapel this week. We invite you to join us in the church sanctuary at 8:05 a.m. on Wednesday morning. Our second quarter offerings will benefit the Samaritan Center.

All School Service Day - Part of Trinity's mission statement is to serve others for Christ. Therefore, our students will be doing many different service projects at our school and throughout the community on October 23rd. Our elementary students will work on a variety of projects at school, while our junior high students will take their service to local community areas and organizations. If you would like to help with our Day of Service, please contact the classroom teacher to find out how you can bring joy to others on this day!

Parent Teacher Conferences – will be held Thursday, October 24th, therefore; there will be no school.

Fall Break is Friday, October 25th. School will not be in session.

National Lutheran Cross Country Meet is Saturday, October 26th held in Mequon, Wisconsin.

Attention: Thrivent Members – Please consider applying for a grant to be used on projects at Trinity Lutheran School. These $250 grants are easy to apply for and take very little time. Contact Steve Gonzales at 636-7807 or sgonzales@trinityjc.org if you're interested. Thrivent members who are over 16 years of age can submit two applications each calendar year. We appreciate your time and consideration in helping us take advantage of these funds to help our school!

TLS 8th GRADE POINSETTIA SALE – Trinity's 8th grade class is selling poinsettias as a fundraiser. Proceeds will be used for an end-of-year class trip and class gift for the school. The poinsettias, from Trinklein Brothers Greenhouses, are available in three colors—red, pink and white, and two sizes—6" and 8". A large 6" pot is priced at $11 and an extra-large 8" pot is $16. These are beautiful Poinsettias. Orders for homes, offices, and gifts may be placed through any 8th grade student or by contacting Jennie Vogt at 573-230-2776, or Jodi Bates at 573-619-7214. Orders must be placed by October 23, 2019. Please pay at the time of order. Poinsettias will be delivered to the Fellowship Hall on December 5th, and will be available for pick up starting around noon. The TLS 8th grade class thanks you for your support!

CALVARY INSIDER – What happened at Calvary last week?

- Cross Country competed in the Russellville Invitational Saturday and Centralia Invitational Tuesday for a busy week!
- Varsity volleyball competed in the Eldon Tournament, competing in both pool play and bracket play for a full day of volleyball!
- Students spent Tuesday morning completing testing to help prepare them for college and other post-high school plans.
- The senior class participated in a service day Tuesday morning to help give back to the community.
- Calvary softball competed in the first round of district play in Versailles!
- Student ambassadors celebrated Pastor Appreciation month by hosting local clergy for Coffee at Calvary.
- Our winter athletes and their parents met with coaches and teams to start preparing for the winter sports season.
- FFA students hosted their annual chili supper and labor auction Friday evening.

WRAPPING UP FALL SPORTS – Calvary fall sports are approaching the ends of their seasons, but you still have a chance to catch volleyball at home in regular season and post season play. Cross Country will also be competing in the post season coming up soon.

- Volleyball Senior Night v. Russellville, Oct. 24 at 6pm at CALVARY
- Volleyball District Tournament, Oct. 28-29 at CALVARY
- District Cross Country Meet, Nov. 2 at Linn

NEXT CALVARY BLOOD DRIVE- Mark your calendars for the next Calvary blood drive on Monday, October 28 from 1-7 p.m. at Calvary Lutheran High School. You can make an appointment by contacting Denise Crider at 573-690-6788 or Sydney Duenckel at 573-691-3717. Walk-ins are always welcome. Please consider donating to help save a life!

UPDATED WISHLIST – If you're looking for a way to support Calvary either big or small, a great place to start is our wish list. We've got items with a wide range of prices that can help fulfill a need here at the school. We've recently updated our list to reflect the generous gifts that have recently been given and the ever-changing needs of our growing school!

WEEKLY CHAPEL- As part of the Calvary extended family, you are invited to join us for chapel each Wednesday in our auditorium at 10:30. Each week features a different pastor joining us to share important lessons with our students and attending community members. We would love to have you join us in worship!

FALL INTO SHOPPING AT CALVARY'S GIFT- As the seasons are changing, make sure to check out Calvary's Gift for your home goods, décor, clothing, and other shopping needs. Calvary's Gift offers gently used items that range from clothing to small furniture, and all proceeds go to support Calvary Lutheran High School. They change their inventory to match each current season, so you never know what treasures you'll find to have you ready for the change in weather.

The FALL DINNER COMMITTEE will meet November 4 at 6:00pm to wrap up details for the dinner. All chair persons please plan to attend or call Janelle. Will have chocolate.

The FALL DINNER COUNTRY STORE & BAKERY will be needing things to sell. There are all types of donations such as homemade/homegrown molasses, apples, nuts, all kinds of pies, cookies, cakes, breads, jellies, holiday edibles, salsa, handmade items, crafts, dish clothes, dish towels, baby blankets, coneflower, milkweed seed, zinnia seed to name a few ideas. Velvet Meers, Chair, can be reached at 573-690-0331 for questions.

FIRST RESPONDER MEALS: Are you interested in providing meals for community first responders for the church dinner? Tickets are $11. There are approximately 110+ meals to cover. You can stop by the office or you can see Pastor Powell if you would like to purchase tickets. We have had great response in the past for this program, and it is an appreciated outreach in our community.

Adults - $11.00

Children ages 5 to 12 - $5.00
